✓ 11. [REDACTED] LIAISON Jack Davis, on the staff of Senator Harry F. Byrd, Jr. (I., Va.), called to advise us that the Senator had decided not to make the trip to the Far East with Senator Sam Nunn (D., Ga.). He decided instead to send a staffer, Quentin Crommelin. Davis indicated that Crommelin did not have a clearance and I replied that I did not think that this would be a problem since the delegation did plan to meet with Agency representatives. I thanked him for providing us with the information.

12. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Bill Hogan, General Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, to apologize that [REDACTED] NFAC, would not be able to meet with the staff for a SALT briefing as scheduled. I explained this was because fast breaking events from Geneva required [REDACTED] immediate presence at Headquarters throughout the day. Hogan replied that he understood this but was upset and felt like a second class citizen because this was the second postponement of the briefing that we had made. He added that he didn't think we would treat the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in this manner and concluded before hanging up by saying that we would have to reschedule it for a later time.
